

PROMINENT PEOPLE OF NORTONVILLE

Join Hands And Hearts In The Sacred Bonds Of Wedlock. Both Well Known Here

Cupid's dart soared high and sure When it pierced the heart of this maiden fair and pure.

A friendship which spans their childhood days and on to this glad day has culminated in the uniting in sacred wedlock of Miss Frances Mae Trathen and Mr. John Carr Wilkins.

The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Gordon, minister of the Christian church, in his study in the church at Madisonville Wednesday afternoon, January twenty-nine.

It was a quiet, but impressively beautiful occasion. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jabez H. Trathen, of Oak Hill, and was lovely in her suit of golden brown and with the exquisite blush lent by the groom's gift of bride roses. Made, a sweet picture which will linger in memory. The groom, a young man with a promising future, is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanna Wilkins, of Nortonville.

After the marriage the young people went to Nortonville, where they were welcomed by the groom's mother, father, and sister, Mrs. Chas. Trathen, and entertained at a family dinner. They will spend a day at the bride's home and after February 1st be at home at Beech Creek, Ky.

The best wishes of a host of friends attend this young couple. May all good at all seasons be theirs.

The February American Magazine

The February American Magazine contains a wonderful letter by Allen Pinkerton, never before published, in which the famous detective relates his connection with the first plot to assassinate Lincoln. Lincoln was on his way to Washington in February, 1861, and the plan was to kill him in Baltimore while he was passing through that city on the way to Washington where he was to be inaugurated. Pinkerton discovered the plot, saved Lincoln's life, and tells the whole story in this letter which was written in 1866 but never reached the public until The American Magazine got hold of it.

Brand Whitlock, Mayor of Toledo, Ohio, writes the second chapter of his personal reminiscences and tells some remarkable stories about James G. Blaine, Governor Altgeld, and the Whitechapel Club of Chicago, which in its time was probably the most famous and most interesting Bohemian club in the world.

Dr. Woods Hutchinson begins a new department entitled "Health and Horse-Power." David Grayson contributes a new "Adventure in Contentment." A New York policeman writes the "Dairy Of a Cop." Albert J. Nock tells about Coatesville, Pa., a town whose citizens burned a man alive and then did nothing about it. Augustus Post writes the "Experience of an Airman."

An excellent assortment of fiction, together with four departments filled with good reading, completes an unusual number.

YOU TAKE NO RISK

Our Reputation And Money Is Back Of This Offer.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. Could anything be more fair for you? Is there any reason why you should hesitate to put our claims to actual test?

The most scientific, common-sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. They are very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. They do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping or any inconvenience whatever. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

We urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Two sizes, 10c and 25c. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated Drug Dept.

LONG DISTANCE WIRELESS

Received From Eiffel Tower And Honolulu At Small Florida Stations

Jacksonville, Fla.—The wireless station on Anastasia Island, near here, has been in communication with Eiffel Tower in Paris, and Honolulu. Long distance tests of the apparatus have been going on for days with the greatest success. The operator has copied messages from Honolulu, 4,800 miles; Clifton Island, 5,100 miles; Eiffel Tower, Paris, 5,400 miles, as well as Colon and stations in the West Indies.

The time signals from Eiffel Tower each day at 6 o'clock, being midnight at Paris, are recorded here. These are sent from Paris automatically by an ingenious switching arrangement from the master clock under the Paris tower. Daily Arlington station at Washington, also is heard sending time for the benefit of ships at sea.

The work of this station, is considered marvelous owing to the light power used as compared with other stations.

For Sale

Good Cow for sale.
ERNEST NEWTON.

To Make Religion Attractive.
"I wish I knew some way to make religion more attractive to the masses." "Why not have a description of heaven written by one of these men who write descriptions of summer resorts for the railroads?"

That it pays to advertise in The Bee is shown by the fact that a few days ago Dallas Curtis advertised that he had lost a watch fob. It was found by a man who read the Bee and Mr. Curtis received his fob after only two days wait.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that he Dawson Springs Sanatorium and Health Resort, Incorporated, will be dissolved by consent of the stockholders on the day of February 1913. Said Corporation is now closing up its business.

Dr. G. Frank Russell, Superintendent of the above named institution will conduct a private Sanatorium known as the Russell Sanatorium in the plant now operated by this concern. This January 20th, 1913.

G. L. RUSSELL, Pres.
J. L. RUSSELL, Sec'y.

R. B. Salmon left today for a business trip to Nashville, Tenn.

FORESTRY BOARD

Plans Free Nurseries To Be Established Throughout State

Frankfort, Ky., Jan., 20.—Tree nurseries will be started by the Department of Forestry this spring. At a meeting of the State board, held in the office of Gov. McCreary Saturday, an offer of a tract for a nursery at Louisville was made by the State Fair Board and a free site also was offered on the Amsterdam road, near Covington. State Forester J. E. Barton will inspect them, and if they are suitable he expects to get his seed beds planted this spring.

Forester Barton said the trees selected probably will be ash, hickory, tulip or poplar, oak, locust and evergreen.

The board invited proposals of sale or gift of lands for establishing forest reserves. It is expected that some of the mining companies in the mountains, whose lands have been denuded of timber, will offer tracts for this purpose, as they seem to realize the advantage to them of the reforestation of the watersheds. Trees from the State nurseries will be furnished to land owners at cost for planting.

The board postponed the election of an Assistant State Forester indefinitely. Present at the meeting were Gov. McCreary, Commissioner of Agriculture, J. W. Newman, Joseph Kastie, director of the Experiment Station; Mrs. Mason Maury, of Louisville, and W. H. Mackey, of Covington.

Receipt Books

The Bee has just printed and bound a lot of Receipt books in two sizes. These books are handy and we sell the small one for 5c and the large one for 15c.

A Committee of gentlemen of this city members of the Elks Lodge in Madisonville went around the city yesterday afternoon soliciting clothing and money for the flood sufferers at Ashbyburg. They got quite a lot of clothing and over $25.00 in a short time. These people are in need and there are 500 people in 17 houses and the Elks Lodge in Madisonville has donated $300.00 for their benefit.

Futile Arguments.

There was once an orator, Themistocles, and as he reasoned a Colonel Boanerges in the audience hurled a stone at the speaker. He took it up and showed it to the audience with the remark: "A weighty argument, but not convincing," and the arguments of some are like the stone of the fellow in the crowd.

Taken up as a Stray

One Red Heifer about two years old, with the following marks to wit: Split in right ear, crop off left, deborned and partly white, bushy tail and valued at fifteen dollars by E. C. Moore, 2 miles East, Earlinton, Ky.

Witness: Walter Faver, witness sworn to by D. W. Luckett, witness Given under my hand as Justice of Peace of Hopkins county Ky., this 16th day of Jan. 1913.

J. W. Priest, J. P. H. C.

General Harrison Chamberlain age 23 of this county passed through the city yesterday enroute to Evansville where he has joined the U. S. Navy and will be sent to New York City.

NOTICE

Mortons Gap Mercantile Store has sold its stock of goods to Roy Jones, who will continue the business in the Mercantile store. All parties indebted to said firm will please come forward at once and make settlement, either cash or note.

BEN T. ROBINSON,
Liquidating Agent.

Mrs. C. E. Barnett is spending this week in St. Louis, Mo., with friends.

Winfrey Parrish Runs For Sheriff

Elsewhere in this issue will be seen the card of W. H. Parrish announcing as a candidate for sheriff of Hopkins county, subject to the action of the democratic primary next August.

Mr. Parrish is a man of the highest business integrity and a democrat of unsullied record. He is splendidly qualified to discharge the duties of the office. Hopkins county would never have cause to regret it.

Mr. Parrish has many friends who will stand by him to the end. He is out to win and will no doubt be a strong man in the race.

GARRICK THEATRE TUESDAY NIGHT, FEB. 4th

The Girl, The Man and The Game

Billy Single Clifford, in The Girl, The Man and The Game, which comes to the Garrick on Tuesday night February 4th, will no doubt be given a hearty welcome by Madisonville people, especially members of the local lodge of Elks and Shriners will no doubt extend to him a pleasant reception.

Mr. Clifford is a member of Springfield Ohio B. P. O. E. No. 73 and Mecca Shriners lodge of New York City.

Criticism which have reached us indicate that the attraction will number the best that has been in Madisonville in some time and no doubt the people of Earlinton will be present to witness same.

Big Welsh Coal Operator In America May Buy Lands

D. A. Thomas, largest operator in Welsh coal, arrived on Mauretania, reported to be contemplating purchase of several hundred thousands acres of West Virginia and Kentucky coal lands, to provide future supply of coal to protect coal consuming interests in South America represented by him. Mr. Thomas said American coal industry had excelled in Welsh coal of United Kingdom in everything except export and shipping trade. "You have supplanted our coal in West Indies," he declared, "and you are reaching out after our Mediterranean and South American trade."

Ladies Wanted

To introduce our very complete Spring line of beautiful wool suitings, wash fabrics, fancy waistings, silks, etc., hdkfs, laces and petticoats. All up to date N. Y. City patterns. Finest line on the market. Dealing direct with the mills you will find our prices low. Profit, $10.00 to $20.00 weekly. Samples and full instructions packed in a neat sample case, shipped express prepaid. No money required. Exclusive territory. Write for particulars. Be first to apply. Standard Dress Goods Company, Dept. 608, Birmingham, Ala. N. Y.

The Truth About the High Water at Evansville

The truth about the flood situation at Evansville is that all of the best parts of Evansville that is to say, the business, manufacturing and almost all of the residence sections on the city, are entirely free from damage. The Oakdale section is a cheap suburb built of low ground close to the river bottoms where lots can be purchased at a nominal price and is inhabited to a great extent by those who were attracted by the cheapness of property.

Evansville is a high and dry city and the damage to the business by high water is entirely nominal and is caused solely by loss of business from surrounding territory, some of which is low ground but which is more than made up by the increased fertility of the river bottom land which rents for as high as $20.00 per acre per annum.

Evansville has never been and never will be flooded as some of the other cities along the river for the reason that our Water Street even at the present high stage of water is not submerged and the stores and shops are thronged with customers as usual.

Any resident of Evansville will confirm this statement and we hope that all former residents who are located in other cities of the country will do their duty to their home town by telling their neighbors the truth about the high water conditions at Evansville.

Evansville Business Men's Association.

By BENJAMIN BOSSE, Pres.

WILL SEARCH FOR RADIUM IN ROCKIES

Government Convinced Mountains Are Regular Storehouse

Washington, D. C. Jan. 27.—Apparently convinced that the Rocky Mountains constitute a storehouse for radium, the most precious of all metals, the United States Bureau of Mine proposes to increase its force of radium hunters in that section of the country. The Civil Service Commission today announced that examinations would be held February 26, next, to supply the demand of the Bureau for junior chemists in radio-activity. The successful candidates will be stationed at the branch office of the service in Denver, Col., at salaries ranging from $1,080 to $1,440 a year.

Considerable versatility is required in applicants for the position for they must not only have a grasp of radio-activity, but they must be grounded in inorganic physical chemistry, speak French and German, and have a working acquaintance with a blow pipe.

In every home where there are children there should be a bottle of WHIT'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. It destroys worms and acts as a tonic in the debilitated system. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated Drug department.

Attractive Vase.

An effective centerpiece for the breakfast table is a flower vase of wood brown bamboo. They come in a variety of shapes. Inside are sheet iron or metal receptacles to hold the water. Most any flower shows to advantage against the dull brown of the bamboo. Many of these vases are loosely woven and dull red or green pottery peeks through the interstices. They may be found in any oriental store.

Mrs. A. R. Tabor, of Oiler, Mo., had been troubled with sick headache for about five years, when she began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. She has taken two bottles of them and they have cured her. Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach for which these tablets are especially intended. Try them, get well and stay well. Sold by all dealers.

A RECORD BREAKING SALE

Mr. Dulin, of the Dulin Store, is Interviewed.

"Mr. Dulin, would you mind to tell us how much you sold Friday and Saturday?"

"Well we rarely ever give out figures relative to our business, but this was a record-breaking sale. We sold a little over five thousand dollars, and so far we know this is by far the biggest cash sale ever made in Hopkins county or this end of the state, for that matter in two consecutive days. All day it was simply a question of how many we could wait on. There never was before, and probably never will be again, another such opportunity for a big sale. For over a quarter of a century Mr. Bishop has been building a reputation for handling the best merchandise money could buy. Since I was a boy the name 'Bishop' on a garment or a pair of shoes signified high-grade—or at least honest value. So we say we had a right to expect a big business with this immense stock of merchandise, with its known reputation for quality, coupled with our splendid facilities and room for handling big crowds and our known reputation for doing just what we say we will.

"When we advertised hundreds of good suits at one and two dollars and thousands of good shoes at one dollar, the people who trade with us and know us best, knew they would find the just as represented.

"Yes we have about one hundred of the suits left this morning. All of them sizes 33, 34 and 35 all the smaller and larger sizes are sold. We can still fit most any boy in his teens and a small man.

"We still have a big stock childrens shoes at 25c, 50c and 75c. Of the men's and women's fine shoes that we put out to at $1.00 we have left in the dies over one hundred pairs, sizes 2, 2 1/2, 3, 3 1/2, 6, 7 and 8. We have about seventy-five pair of men's sizes 9, 10 and 11. We still have a good stock of collars at 5c; the 25c and 50c neckties at 3 for 25 cents, the childrens' $1.00 hats for 25c and 50c caps for 10c, and hundreds of men's $2.00 and $3.00 hats at choice for 50c and 75c.

"While the goods we have referred to probably represent some of the biggest price reductions, they do not in our judgment represent the biggest values or bargains we are offering. We consider the biggest and best values we are giving our people are in the stocks and stocks of the crisp, new, up-to-date merchandise that is worth one hundred cents on the dollar of an man's money and day, which we are selling at about half of its real value."

Notice.

All members of Co. G. are requested to be present at the Armory at 7 p. m., on Saturday 4th. Important business to be transacted.

BEN W. WILSON Lieut.
Co. G. 3rd Ky. Infantry.

For Breaking Out.

"Why do you have those glass cases with the ax, hammer, crowbar and so forth, on these cars?" asked a traveler on the railroad going to New York. "Oh, those are put there in case any one wants a window open," replied the facetious man.

Persons troubled with partial paralysis are often very much benefited by massaging the affected part thoroughly when applying Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pains. Sold by all dealers.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

Profit Sharing Sale Closes Sat., Feb. 1

Every odd lot of Merchandise left, will be Slaughtered in price SATURDAY.	Everything in the way of samples, hanging up and on racks, will be sold regardless of cost SATURDAY.	Every short length in Ginghams, 10c, 12½c and 15c value, will be sold SATURDAY, 5c per yd.	Hoosier Brown Cotton SATURDAY, per yd. . . . 5c Hope Bleach Cotton, SATURDAY, per yd. . . . 7½c Calico, per yd, SATURDAY 4c Calico per yd. SATURDAY, 1c	Lot No 1, 35 pairs Shoes, SATURDAY. . . . 98c pair Lot No. 2, 65 pairs Shoes, SATURDAY. . . $1.49 pair Lot No. 3, 38 pairs Shoes, SATURDAY. . . $1.69 pair	ONE LOT OF BOYS SHOES SATURDAY, . . . $1.00	SALE CLOSING SATURDAY, FEB. 1, 1913 Don't Miss This Opportunity to Reap Bargains.
---------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Barnes, Cowand & Co. Incorporated

Earlington, Ky.

The Bee

PAUL M. MOORE,
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

J. E. FAWCETT
ASSOCIATE EDITOR AND BUSINESS MANAGER

Member of Kentucky Press Association and
Second District Publishers League

Branch Office in Ben Slaton's Office, Next Door to Postoffice, Madisonville, Kentucky, Phone No. 24-2 Rings—MISS AILEEN DAVIS, Mgr.

Telephone 47

Advertising Rates

Display Advertisements, single issue 15c per inch
Locals and Inside Pages, Readers 10c per line
Resolutions and Cards of Thanks 5c per line
Obituary Poetry 5c per line
Slight reductions on time contract display advertisements. Also locals that run several months without change

Entered at the Earlington Post Office as Second Class Matter.

Friday, January 31, 1913

Loosing Flesh?

Perhaps it's because you are demanding too much of your body. If you are assuming more responsibility and work than you are capable of doing, or if you have become run-down and worn out through worry, by all means build yourself up.

Take our

Compound Syrup of Hypophosphates

This beneficial medicine creates new appetite, makes you healthy, vigorous and full of vim and vitality. Absolutely the best remedy in existence for the purpose, quickly restoring vital tissue and morrow-making elements. $1.00 per bottle.

St. Bernard Mining Co. Incorporated Drug Department

Papers and Magazines

I have purchased the business of Bacon Ashby and will move it to the Sory Drug Co. stand and will handle a full line of Magazines, periodicals and daily papers and wish to see all my old friends.

Walter "Red" Fugate
Madisonville, Kentucky

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It is a sure and safe remedy for all such accidents.

Harsh physics react, weaken the bowels, lead to chronic constipation. Doan's Kidney Pills are a sure and safe remedy for all such accidents.

"John Sterling Alderman" the two reel Imp to be shown at the Idle Hour tonight is based on actual happenings. The play was written around these facts by King Baggot himself.

Romantic Ancient Mariners.
Among the ancient mariners the wildest superstitions were rife, but their beliefs in the existence of enchanted spots, such as the siren island of Salypso or of those islets which Sinbad likened to the Gardens of Paradise, were more picturesque and romantic than the gloomy and prosaic imaginings which occupy the mind of the modern seaman.

Business.
"Mirandy, Mirandy! Git up! They's ten automobiles gone by a'ready this mornin', an' th' chickens ain't been turned out into th' road yet!"—Judge.

Matter of Doubling.
Oliver Wendell Holmes was a classmate of Doctor Clarke at Harvard, and according to the reminiscences of the latter, the Autocrat of the Breakfast Table was as witty then as later. One day the two were talking of metaphysics, when the bright-tongued little great man exclaimed, "I tell you, James, what I think metaphysics is like. It is like a man splitting a log. When it is done he has two more to split!"

No Need for Fear.
On one occasion when General Jackson was sailing down Chesapeake bay in an old steamboat the waves were running high, and an elderly gentleman present expressed some concern. "You are uneasy," said the general to him; "you never sailed with me before, I see."—Parton's Life of Jackson.

Thousands of Prescriptions

Testify

as to the confidence that physicians and the general public have in our ability to serve them.

We specialize on prescription compounding and keep right up-to-date in equipment and methods. A better stock of prescription drugs cannot be found anywhere.

You are insured quality, accuracy and reasonable prices.

Only competent pharmacists are employed here.

May We Serve You?

BEN T. ROBINSON

Corner Drug Store

MORTONS GAP, KY.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

COUNTY JUDGE

We are authorized to announce R. Bradley as a candidate for re-election as County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

We are authorized to announce William T. Mills as a candidate for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce E. Morrow as a candidate for County Judge of Hopkins county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

JAILOR

We are authorized to announce J. Byrum as a candidate for jailor of Hopkins county subject to the action of the Democratic Party.

SHERIFF

We are authorized to announce R. R. Radd as a candidate for Sheriff of Hopkins county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce J. Sh. Crowder as a candidate for Sheriff of Hopkins County, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce C. Dick Williams as a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce W. Logan as a candidate for Sheriff of Hopkins County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

We are authorized to announce I. H. Grady, of Madisonville, Ky., as a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

We are authorized to announce J. E. Hicklin as a candidate for Sheriff of Hopkins county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

We are authorized to announce Doctor Ashby as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Hopkins county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

We are authorized to announce W. H. Parrish as a candidate for Sheriff of Hopkins county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

COUNTY COURT CLERK

We are authorized to announce J. E. Arnold as a candidate for County Court Clerk, of Hopkins county, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

We are authorized to announce Frank Brown as a candidate for County Court Clerk subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

We are authorized to announce S. T. OATES, of the Curtail, as a candidate for county court clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

We are authorized to announce Ben G. Salmon as a candidate for the office of County Court Clerk of Hopkins County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT

We are authorized to announce Cass L. Walker as a candidate for School Superintendent, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

We are authorized to announce L. R. Ray as a candidate for School Superintendent for Hopkins County subject to the action of the Democratic party.

LEGISLATURE

We are authorized to announce ROY S. WILSON as a candidate for the Legislature from Hopkins county, subject to the Democratic primary August, 1913.

The Kentucky Department of Forestry will establish tree nurseries when spring comes and State Forester Barton announces that trees selected will probably be ash, tulip, oak, locust and perhaps other varieties. Members of the State Board know something of the successful work along these lines done around Earlington by the late John B. Atkinson, who, covering a period of some twenty years work of growing young forests on the waste lands of the St. Bernard Mining Co., created the most practical and important object lesson in forestry in the South.

Announcement of the plans of the Forestry Board carries with it the statement that "it is expected that some of the mining companies in the mountains, whose lands have been denuded of timber, will offer tracts for this purpose, as they seem to realize the advantage to them of the reforestation of the watersheds." Perhaps this is just a loose statement by a news writer who has not a very clear sense of proportions in the matter of forestry or its relation to coal mining. If there is a coal land owner in Eastern Kentucky who does not realize the immense future benefit that would accrue to him through having his waste lands reforested.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by all Druggists, 75 cents.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Uses for Salt.

A little salt rubbed on the cups will take off tea stains. Use salt and water to clean willow furniture. Apply with a brush and rub dry. A small quantity of salt put into white wash will make it stick better.

BILLY S. CLIFFORD
AND A BEVY OF THE FAIREST BUDS
FROM NATURE'S GARDEN

IN THE MUSICAL FARCEFUL SUCCESS
"THE GIRL, THE MAN, & THE GAME"

TEMPERANCE NOTES

Conducted by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

WHY A DRUMMER SWORE OFF

Pathetic Spectacle of Father Trying to Pawn His Baby's Shoes Was

Ed. Much for Him

"No, I won't drink with you today," said a drummer to his companions, as they settled down in a smoking car and passed the bottle. "The fact is, boys, I have quit drinking; I've sworn off."

"What's the matter with you, old boy?" sang out one. "If you're quit drinking something's up. What is it?"

"Well, boys, I will tell you. Yesterday I was in Chicago. Down on Clark street a customer of mine keeps a pawnshop, in connection with other business. I called on him, and while I was there a young man, not more than twenty-five, wearing threadbare clothes and looking as hard as if he hadn't seen a sober day for a month, came in with a little package in his hand. He unwrapped it and handed the article to the pawnbroker, saying, 'Give me ten cents.' And, boys, what do you suppose it was? A pair of baby's shoes—little things with the buttons only a trifle soiled, as if they had been worn only once or twice. 'Where did you get these?' asked the pawnbroker. 'Got 'em home,' replied the man, who had an intelligent look and the manner of a gentleman, despite his sad condition. 'My wife bought 'em for my baby. Give me ten cents for 'em—I want a drink.' 'You had better take the shoes back to your wife; the baby will need them,' said the pawnbroker. 'No, she won't, because she's dead. She's lyin' dead at home now—died last night.' As he said this, the poor fellow broke down, bowed his head on the showcase and cried like a child. 'Boys,' continued the drummer, 'you may laugh if you please, but I have a baby at home, and I swear I'll never take another drink.'"

EFFECTS OF BEER DRINKING

Shortens One's Life From 40 to 69 Per Cent.

Cent. According to Figuring of Insurance Companies.

The life insurance companies make a business of estimating men's lives, and can only make money by making correct estimates of whatever influences life. Now they expect a man, otherwise healthy, who is addicted to beer drinking, will have his life shortened from 40 to 69 per cent. For instance, if he is twenty years old and does not drink beer he may reasonably expect to live until he is 61. If he is a beer drinker he will probably not live to be over 35. If he is 30 years old when he begins to drink beer he will probably drop off somewhere between 40 and 45 instead of living to 61 as he should. There is no sentiment, prejudice or association about these figures. They are simply cold-blooded business facts, derived from experience, and the companies trust their money on them; just the same as a man pays so many dollars for so many feet of ground or bushels of wheat.—Dr. S. S. Thorn, Toledo, Ohio, in U. S. Senate Document.

COMMON BUSHES

ALL IN FLAME

Deduction Drawn From Miracle Revealed in the Text of the Holy Scriptures.

W

HEN Moses in the land of Midian obtained the great vision which constituted his call to the leadership of Israel he was occupied with the ordinary tasks of life—he was simply doing his duty in a prosaic way. He was tending the flocks, and his thoughts were meanwhile ruminating on big questions, idealizing his common tasks, and so preparing himself for greater service later on. By faithfully serving in a lowly capacity, Moses was led into just that humble frame of mind which fitted him for advancement to larger responsibilities. His promotion came through a personal touch of the powers of heaven upon his life. It is often so—the "common round" brings man suddenly face to face with God. There is no telling around which turn of the road the angels may next meet us. As Moses was leading his flock he "came to the mountain of God"—and an angel of God appeared to him in a flame of fire.

With a sacred inquisitiveness Moses turned aside to learn the meaning of the strange sight that met his eyes.

What interested and surprised him was not just a bush—Moses came across plenty of brambles in the land of Midian, and had often torn his flesh on their thorns; nor was it the sight of a burning bush, for Moses had seen many bonfires along the ridges of the hills that cut into the deserts. The wonder was that the bush, while burning, did not burn—that it was not consumed. We do not know just what the nature of this miracle was, for we do not know the nature of any miracle, nor of life itself, which is one great wonder. It is sufficient for the moral purpose of this epistle to recognize that the burning bush was the scene and seat of some extraordinary (and yet not necessarily irrational or unnatural) phenomenal manifestation of the power and presence of Jehovah.

In a sense, God was in that bush, as he might be said to be in a "still, small voice"—not that the Deity is pantheistically merged in the phenomena of the world which he has created, but that he is dynamically at work in all the processes of nature, whether in those which we have plotted down a few data here and there, as to discovered "laws," called "natural," or those in which, not having been plotted as yet, men regard as extraordinary, or "miraculous."

The most important point in the incident is the sign that it gave Moses for the dynamic presence of Jehovah in all his life, and intermediately in our lives too. So very much was God in that place that the wondering shepherd was told to slip on his sandals, for the very earth upon which he stood was "holy ground." By this revelation of God to him, Moses' life was at once lifted to a higher plane. Yet it was not a motion in a worldly sense that did this—not just a change of tasks, though Moses was indeed, thereafter called to more conspicuous duties—but a heightening of moral ideal, the increase of consecration, and the broader scope of social sympathy that came when Moses met God face to face in Midian, was challenged by his holy purpose, and accepted—though with some misgiving, due at first to a weak faith—the call to a larger task, and a more arduous service.

Solitude often assists the culture of the higher life in man, and discovers for him the sacred meaning of the commonplace, when ordinary happenings are consecrated to a lofty and eternal aim. It is not necessary to go into the desert to find God—that was the mistake of the old-time ascetics. What is needed is a certain amount of solitude in one's own heart—which leaves space for God to enter and which is shared by the continual presence of him who spoke to Moses out of the bush burning in the desert, and who said to his mission-sent disciples: "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

To the man who carries the sense of God's presence with him no spot is absolutely lonely and every place is holy ground. Wherever such a man goes he sees what happens many around him fail to recognize—the bushes of the commonplace glowing with the theophanies of a "revealing God." In saying this I am not teaching any pantheistic nothing or mere sentimental dream. I am simply enforcing the fact, taught and illustrated throughout the length and breadth of Scripture—that the Lord Jehovah is everywhere present by his spirit, at all places and at all times ready to reveal himself spiritually to the humble, upbuilding all things by the word of his power, and frequently taking delight in making his glory to burst through the veil of the ordinary, until the rudest but by which some way-faring man kneels becomes mantled with a dazzling Shekinah. He that hath eyes to see let him see, and he that hath ears to hear let him hear this thing. Occupy yourself with God's task, and, though like a Simon Peter, you have to toil all night taking nothing, yet in the golden morning you shall see the Lord. Set your affections on things above, and though you may be wearily stumbling along in a dreary desert, the very acacia bushes that border the stony path you tread shall flame with a light which never fades beneath the sun!

—Rev. Charles E. Willard.

The man who has no hope of life will have no hope of life.

—Francis E. Willard.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

—Dedicated by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

TEMPERANCE NOTES

Conducted by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

VIEW OF EX-SALOONKEEPER

Former Owner of Many Dramshops Details Some of His Experiences—Drunkard Is Not

Ben Parker, at one time the owner of many saloons in Des Moines, backed heavily by the brewing interests, who afterward gave up the business, says of his former experience:

"I defy any man to present one single argument that will stand the acid of criticism in favor of the liquor game. I have witnessed the working man spend for drink the money that ought to have bought shoes for his children; have watched the business man spend money over the saloon bar that belonged to other people, and I have been particeps criminis to more woe than the bubonic plague ever spread in its most aggressive form. I tell you that the drunkard is more to be pitied than censured. He is a helpless, weak-brained idiot, and is fostered in his prostration by the evils of his surroundings. If all men were strong-minded the saloon would soon go out of business, but unfortunately most men are weaker than their environment and fall before the allurements of vice. It is the absolute removal of these surroundings that will assure the betterment of society, and the way to do it is to stamp out the saloon, the brewery and the distillery. It will require the united effort of the strong to bring about the desired end."

SALOONS MISSED HIS WAGES

Entombed Miner Was Glad One Day Passed Without Saloonkeeper—He Was Getting His Pay.

In one of the mines of Pennsylvania there was a cave-in, which imprisoned a miner named Jack Thornton. The accident happened on Friday afternoon, and the fellow laborers of the entombed man set to work at once to dig him out. It was not until Sunday morning, however, that they reached his prison chamber, and by this time they were wondering whether he had been suffocated or starved to death. One of them stuck his head through the aperture made by the picks of the rescuers, and called out:

"Jack, are you all right?"

"All right," came the reply, and then, after a pause, "What day is this?"

"Sunday," answered the friend.

"Geet!" exclaimed Jack. "I'm glad of that. That was one Saturday night when those saloonkeepers didn't get my wages."

BACK DOOR TO THE SALOON

Made Use of by Liquor Dealers to Cast Out Those No Longer Profitable to Their Trade.

It is said that it is better to have the "front doors" of a saloon open than its "back doors." Many of us think that it is much better that any business, which tends to the demoralization of a community, should be done on the sly, and in violation of law, and amid conditions tending to disgust and repel, rather than under the sanction of law, and with surroundings calculated to attract customers. But, however that may be, the "open door" saloon (that is, the saloon that pretends to observe the restrictions in a license law) is always attended by its "back door," satellites, or those saloons that cater to the poor creatures who have been first lured to ruin by the "open door," and then cast out as no longer fit to be served at so-called decent bars.—Col. Fred N. Dow.

Claim of Saloon Keeper

The claim of saloon keepers to freedom in their traffic is the claim to spread disease, sin and pauperism. Education, the elevation of the masses, liberty—all that the age admires—is set at naught by this dreadful evil. The individual conscience is the first arm in opposing it; but the individual conscience has to be strengthened and supplemented by law.—Archbishop Ireland.

Well Answered

The Christian Endeavorers' aim to wipe out the saloon by July 4, 1920. Would it not be better to influence the men so that they would use the saloon temperately?—Both Sides (Liquor Journal).

"Well, dear B. S., we have been trying that kind of thing for many a day, but as soon as we get the men just about learnt they slide into the stumpr or are sent to the penitentiary or slip their necks into the hangman's noose!"—The Northwestern Patriot.

TEMPERANCE NOTES

Conducted by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

VIEW OF EX-SALOONKEEPER

Former Owner of Many Dramshops Details Some of His Experiences—Drunkard Is Not

Ben Parker, at one time the owner of many saloons in Des Moines, backed heavily by the brewing interests, who afterward gave up the business, says of his former experience:

"I defy any man to present one single argument that will stand the acid of criticism in favor of the liquor game. I have witnessed the working man spend for drink the money that ought to have bought shoes for his children; have watched the business man spend money over the saloon bar that belonged to other people, and I have been particeps criminis to more woe than the bubonic plague ever spread in its most aggressive form. I tell you that the drunkard is more to be pitied than censured. He is a helpless, weak-brained idiot, and is fostered in his prostration by the evils of his surroundings. If all men were strong-minded the saloon would soon go out of business, but unfortunately most men are weaker than their environment and fall before the allurements of vice. It is the absolute removal of these surroundings that will assure the betterment of society, and the way to do it is to stamp out the saloon, the brewery and the distillery. It will require the united effort of the strong to bring about the desired end."

SALOONS MISSED HIS WAGES

Entombed Miner Was Glad One Day Passed Without Saloonkeeper—He Was Getting His Pay.

In one of the mines of Pennsylvania there was a cave-in, which imprisoned a miner named Jack Thornton. The accident happened on Friday afternoon, and the fellow laborers of the entombed man set to work at once to dig him out. It was not until Sunday morning, however, that they reached his prison chamber, and by this time they were wondering whether he had been suffocated or starved to death. One of them stuck his head through the aperture made by the picks of the rescuers, and called out:

"Jack, are you all right?"

"All right," came the reply, and then, after a pause, "What day is this?"

"Sunday," answered the friend.

"Geet!" exclaimed Jack. "I'm glad of that. That was one Saturday night when those saloonkeepers didn't get my wages."

BACK DOOR TO THE SALOON

Made Use of by Liquor Dealers to Cast Out Those No Longer Profitable to Their Trade.

It is said that it is better to have the "front doors" of a saloon open than its "back doors." Many of us think that it is much better that any business, which tends to the demoralization of a community, should be done on the sly, and in violation of law, and amid conditions tending to disgust and repel, rather than under the sanction of law, and with surroundings calculated to attract customers. But, however that may be, the "open door" saloon (that is, the saloon that pretends to observe the restrictions in a license law) is always attended by its "back door," satellites, or those saloons that cater to the poor creatures who have been first lured to ruin by the "open door," and then cast out as no longer fit to be served at so-called decent bars.—Col. Fred N. Dow.

Claim of Saloon Keeper

The claim of saloon keepers to freedom in their traffic is the claim to spread disease, sin and pauperism. Education, the elevation of the masses, liberty—all that the age admires—is set at naught by this dreadful evil. The individual conscience is the first arm in opposing it; but the individual conscience has to be strengthened and supplemented by law.—Archbishop Ireland.

Well Answered

The Christian Endeavorers' aim to wipe out the saloon by July 4, 1920. Would it not be better to influence the men so that they would use the saloon temperately?—Both Sides (Liquor Journal).

"Well, dear B. S., we have been trying that kind of thing for many a day, but as soon as we get the men just about learnt they slide into the stumpr or are sent to the penitentiary or slip their necks into the hangman's noose!"—The Northwestern Patriot.

TEMPERANCE NOTES

Conducted by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

VIEW OF EX-SALOONKEEPER

Former Owner of Many Dramshops Details Some of His Experiences—Drunkard Is Not

Ben Parker, at one time the owner of many saloons in Des Moines, backed heavily by the brewing interests, who afterward gave up the business, says of his former experience:

"I defy any man to present one single argument that will stand the acid of criticism in favor of the liquor game. I have witnessed the working man spend for drink the money that ought to have bought shoes for his children; have watched the business man spend money over the saloon bar that belonged to other people, and I have been particeps criminis to more woe than the bubonic plague ever spread in its most aggressive form. I tell you that the drunkard is more to be pitied than censured. He is a helpless, weak-brained idiot, and is fostered in his prostration by the evils of his surroundings. If all men were strong-minded the saloon would soon go out of business, but unfortunately most men are weaker than their environment and fall before the allurements of vice. It is the absolute removal of these surroundings that will assure the betterment of society, and the way to do it is to stamp out the saloon, the brewery and the distillery. It will require the united effort of the strong to bring about the desired end."

SALOONS MISSED HIS WAGES

Entombed Miner Was Glad One Day Passed Without Saloonkeeper—He Was Getting His Pay.

In one of the mines of Pennsylvania there was a cave-in, which imprisoned a miner named Jack Thornton. The accident happened on Friday afternoon, and the fellow laborers of the entombed man set to work at once to dig him out. It was not until Sunday morning, however, that they reached his prison chamber, and by this time they were wondering whether he had been suffocated or starved to death. One of them stuck his head through the aperture made by the picks of the rescuers, and called out:

"Jack, are you all right?"

"All right," came the reply, and then, after a pause, "What day is this?"

"Sunday," answered the friend.

"Geet!" exclaimed Jack. "I'm glad of that. That was one Saturday night when those saloonkeepers didn't get my wages."

BACK DOOR TO THE SALOON

Made Use of by Liquor Dealers to Cast Out Those No Longer Profitable to Their Trade.

It is said that it is better to have the "front doors" of a saloon open than its "back doors." Many of us think that it is much better that any business, which tends to the demoralization of a community, should be done on the sly, and in violation of law, and amid conditions tending to disgust and repel, rather than under the sanction of law, and with surroundings calculated to attract customers. But, however that may be, the "open door" saloon (that is, the saloon that pretends to observe the restrictions in a license law) is always attended by its "back door," satellites, or those saloons that cater to the poor creatures who have been first lured to ruin by the "open door," and then cast out as no longer fit to be served at so-called decent bars.—Col. Fred N. Dow.

Claim of Saloon Keeper

The claim of saloon keepers to freedom in their traffic is the claim to spread disease, sin and pauperism. Education, the elevation of the masses, liberty—all that the age admires—is set at naught by this dreadful evil. The individual conscience is the first arm in opposing it; but the individual conscience has to be strengthened and supplemented by law.—Archbishop Ireland.

Well Answered

The Christian Endeavorers' aim to wipe out the saloon by July 4, 1920. Would it not be better to influence the men so that they would use the saloon temperately?—Both Sides (Liquor Journal).

"Well, dear B. S., we have been trying that kind of thing for many a day, but as soon as we get the men just about learnt they slide into the stumpr or are sent to the penitentiary or slip their necks into the hangman's noose!"—The Northwestern Patriot.

TEMPERANCE NOTES

Conducted by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

VIEW OF EX-SALOONKEEPER

Former Owner of Many Dramshops Details Some of His Experiences—Drunkard Is Not

Ben Parker, at one time the owner of many saloons in Des Moines, backed heavily by the brewing interests, who afterward gave up the business, says of his former experience:

"I defy any man to present one single argument that will stand the acid of criticism in favor of the liquor game. I have witnessed the working man spend for drink the money that ought to have bought shoes for his children; have watched the business man spend money over the saloon bar that belonged to other people, and I have been particeps criminis to more woe than the bubonic plague ever spread in its most aggressive form. I tell you that the drunkard is more to be pitied than censured. He is a helpless, weak-brained idiot, and is fostered in his prostration by the evils of his surroundings. If all men were strong-minded the saloon would soon go out of business, but unfortunately most men are weaker than their environment and fall before the allurements of vice. It is the absolute removal of these surroundings that will assure the betterment of society, and the way to do it is to stamp out the saloon, the brewery and the distillery. It will require the united effort of the strong to bring about the desired end."

SALOONS MISSED HIS WAGES

Entombed Miner Was Glad One Day Passed Without Saloonkeeper—He Was Getting His Pay.

In one of the mines of Pennsylvania there was a cave-in, which imprisoned a miner named Jack Thornton. The accident happened on Friday afternoon, and the fellow laborers of the entombed man set to work at once to dig him out. It was not until Sunday morning, however, that they reached his prison chamber, and by this time they were wondering whether he had been suffocated or starved to death. One of them stuck his head through the aperture made by the picks of the rescuers, and called out:

"Jack, are you all right?"

"All right," came the reply, and then, after a pause, "What day is this?"

"Sunday," answered the friend.

"Geet!" exclaimed Jack. "I'm glad of that. That was one Saturday night when those saloonkeepers didn't get my wages."

BACK DOOR TO THE SALOON

Made Use of by Liquor Dealers to Cast Out Those No Longer Profitable to Their Trade.

It is said that it is better to have the "front doors" of a saloon open than its "back doors." Many of us think that it is much better that any business, which tends to the demoralization of a community, should be done on the sly, and in violation of law, and amid conditions tending to disgust and repel, rather than under the sanction of law, and with surroundings calculated to attract customers. But, however that may be, the "open door" saloon (that is, the saloon that pretends to observe the restrictions in a license law) is always attended by its "back door," satellites, or those saloons that cater to the poor creatures who have been first lured to ruin by the "open door," and then cast out as no longer fit to be served at so-called decent bars.—Col. Fred N. Dow.

Claim of Saloon Keeper

The claim of saloon keepers to freedom in their traffic is the claim to spread disease, sin and pauperism. Education, the elevation of the masses, liberty—all that the age admires—is set at naught by this dreadful evil. The individual conscience is the first arm in opposing it; but the individual conscience has to be strengthened and supplemented by law.—Archbishop Ireland.

Well Answered

The Christian Endeavorers' aim to wipe out the saloon by July 4, 1920. Would it not be better to influence the men so that they would use the saloon temperately?—Both Sides (Liquor Journal).

"Well, dear B. S., we have been trying that kind of thing for many a day, but as soon as we get the men just about learnt they slide into the stumpr or are sent to the penitentiary or slip their necks into the hangman's noose!"—The Northwestern Patriot.

NOW IS THE TIME TO RENEW YOUR SUBSCRIPTION

If you are not a subscriber, now is the time to subscribe

The Price of 104 per is only $1.00 year

We will furnish the Daily Courier-Journal one year and Semi-Weekly Bee year, both for $4.00

Take advantage this offer

NOW

TAKE USE OF OUR MAIL ORDER DEPARTMENT

YOU CANNOT GO WRONG Buying at These Prices

It's a great sale. This sale of our factories' sale stock of men's $18 to $25 Suits at $13.95. These are not the only great inducement. We give 10 PER CENT OFF ON ALL OVERCOATS FROM $8.50 TO $50. All our regular stock Sack and Norfolk Suits. Suit and Overcoat fabric, coloring, finish and shown. Broken lines of Hanan and P. S. & U. $5 to $6.50, closing at $4.45. Broken lots of Hurley and Cossett $4 and $4.50, closing at $3.45. Special offerings in men's furnishings and all lines of boys wear, including shoes.

OUR PARCELS POST PROTECTION

We will transmit by Parcels Post, free of charge to you, all purchases from one ounce to eleven pounds. This applies to orders received in and department of our store.

IT PAYS TO TRADE HERE

Throuse & Bros
EVANSVILLE, INDIANA

no whistles down a has to sell
top of dollars a tree and the Town

was in Madisonville
to see the "Win-

owning, who has ral days is up and Canslers & Alon-

returned to Saturday where after spend-

left Wednes-dayton, Fla., to owning, spent Madisonville with of Madisonville day.

in Madisonville

the sick list this

who has been sick
able to be out

to Hender-

Madisonville, was esterday.

has been sick
improving.

ner and Miss
of this city at-g Widow" in pight.

of Hopkinsville
ay on business.

Nashville was Thursday.

Hopkinsville was today.

d, has returned ss trip to Tenn-

son and A. G. a business trip to eday morning.

Post Master of ent yesterday in ss.

Cheerful Life

right of everyone to live and enjoy the cheerful life. We owe it to those who live with us to live the cheerful life. We, if ill health takes hold of us.

mother and daughter suffering from hot flashes, nervousness, sketched-down feeling, or any other weakness due to disorders of the delicate female organs—is not only a burden to herself, but a source of worry to those around her.

DR. PIERCE'S Favorite Prescription

For weakened womanhood. For 40 years it has survived the test of time. Sold by dealers in medicine in liquid or tablet form. Prescription Tablets can be had of druggist or mailed on stamps—for $1.00 or 50c size. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Lowell, Mass.

at Pellets regulate and invigorate bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

Church Notes

Christian Church

Bible School 9:30 A. M. Lords Supper 10:45 A. M. Preaching 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

The Individual Communion services recently presented by the ladies of the church will be used Sunday morning for the first time. It is earnestly requested that the members attend that service and join in making it impressive.

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

Accuracy in Printing.

None but the initiated know the accuracy required in a printing office. The average reader who detects a misspelled word or a letter upside down feels that his mission on earth is not accomplished until he has called the attention of the overworked editor to the glaring defect. He does not notice the thousands and tens of thousands of letters that are in place of the multitude of words correctly spelled, but his eagle eye is glued on the one that is out of place. So it is with our deeds. Man does a thousand good deeds, and no attention is paid to them, but if he makes one mistake it is flashed all over the world. A lifetime may be spent in building up a reputation that may be wrecked in a moment. The world is a harsh critic, exacting to a fault.—Exchange.

L. & N. TIME CARD.

Time of arrival of trains passing through and departure of trains originating at Earlinton.

Effective Sunday, Jan. 5, 1913.

NORTH BOUND.

No. 98.....7:58 a. m.
No. 92.....6:30 a. m.
No. 53.....11:13 a. m.
No. 94.....8:00 p. m.
No. 54.....11:15 p. m.

SOUTH BOUND.

No. 99.....9:45 p. m.
No. 53.....4:30 a. m.
No. 95.....7:50 a. m.
No. 51.....4:21 p. m.
No. 98.....10:50 p. m.

INTERURBAN TRAINS.

NORTH BOUND.

No. 106.....8:08 a. m.
No. 108.....2:03 p. m.
No. 110.....5:02 p. m.

SOUTH BOUND.

No. 105.....7:05 a. m.
No. 107.....12:57 p. m.
No. 109.....3:10 p. m.
No. 111.....6:10 p. m.

M. H. & E. TIME CARD.

M. H. & E. time card went into effect Sunday, Jan. 5, 1913.

No. 112 leaves.....5:45 a. m.
No. 113 arrives.....8:30 p. m.

I. C. R. R. TIME CARD.

Time of departure of Illinois Central trains from Nortonville, Ky.

NORTH BOUND.

No. 102.....1:28 p. m.
No. 104.....3:30 a. m.
No. 122, local pass.....10:45 a. m.
No. 136, local.....6:38 p. m.

SOUTH BOUND.

No. 101.....4:08 p. m.
No. 103.....2:03 a. m.
No. 121, local pass.....1:28 p. m.
No. 135, local pass.....5:53 a. m.

Temperance

(Conducted by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.)

ALCOHOL BRINGS ONLY HARM

German Ministry of Education Discourages Use of Wine, Beer and Brandy by Children.

The German ministry of education recently approved the following notice to be distributed by the board of health:

Give your children not a drop of wine! Not a drop of beer! Not a drop of brandy!

Why! Because alcohol of any kind, even in the smallest quantity, brings only harm.

1. Alcohol checks bodily and mental development.

2. Alcohol leads quickly to exhaustion and makes heaviness and inattention in school.

3. Alcohol causes disobedience to parents.

4. Alcohol develops sleeplessness and early nervousness.

5. Alcohol endangers the mortality of children.

6. Alcohol weakens the resisting power of the body and thereby leads to the development of all kinds of diseases.

7. Alcohol prolongs the duration of every illness.

8. Alcohol continually awakens renewed thirst, and on that account leads easily to habits of drinking.

INJURY WROUGHT BY ALCOHOL

Same Effects and Conditions as Produced by Vitiating Air—Interferes With Repair of Tissues.

Many of you have been in a close room, and after a time you have felt a sense of suffocation; your face has got flushed and you have felt a headache coming on, and you have felt a lassitude which is very characteristic of the want of fresh air, or the condition produced by fresh air in a room. Alcohol produces exactly the same conditions, exactly the same effects; it produces exactly the same lassitude. First of all it produces a feeling of well-being because it impairs sensation, but after a time it induces a condition of lassitude, the face becomes flushed, the head very often aches simply because alcohol is acting in the same way that the bad air in a room acts. It interferes with the repair of the tissues, thus getting rid of the waste of the tissues and the work of the tissues.—Dr. Sims Woodhead.

ALCOHOL KILLS BY INCHES

Moderate Drinker Destroys One-Third of "White Bodyguard"—Susceptible to Disease.

Physiology shows just how alcohol kills "by inches," or more accurately speaking, by millimeters. In one millimeter of blood a total abstainer will have about 75,000 "little white soldiers," (leucocytes or white corpuscles), a moderate drinker only 50,000, for defense against the army of microbes, germs and parasites, armed with poisoned arrows, that every hour rush into our mouths, and enter every scratch or wound or other broken place in our wall of flesh. Alcohol burns up one-third of the "white body guard" in the moderate drinker.

Mr. Edison's Attitude.

"I am a total abstainer from alcoholic liquors," said Thomas A. Edison. "I always felt I had a better use for my head."

Not long ago a W. C. T. U. woman noticing Mr. Edison's pictured face in connection with an advertisement of whisky, wrote to the "Wizard of Menlo Park" in regard to the matter. She received a prompt response from one of his representatives, saying, "The use of Mr. Edison's name and picture in connection with the advertisement to which you refer is entirely unauthorized, and further is highly objectionable to Mr. Edison."

Beer-Made Flesh Is Diseased.

Do not forget that the fat caused by beer drinking is a sign of disease because, as is well known, beer prevents the oxidation of those substances which form superfluous fat in the body. Physicians nearly all agree that sickness is far more dangerous to beer-drinkers than to non-drinkers, and that serious accidents are usually fatal to them.

Aims of W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is not only anti-saloon but anti-brewery, anti-distillery, and any form of alcoholic liquor making or liquor selling for beverage purposes. The "trade" hates and fears a law that closes the saloons. It hates and fears still more the law that closes the saloon, the brewery and the distillery.—Lillian M. N. Stevens.

To Be and to Do.

There are no times in life when opportunity, the chance to be and to do, gathers so richly about the soul as when it has to suffer. Then everything depends on whether the man turns to the lower or the higher helps. If he resorts to mere experience and tricks, the opportunity is lost; he comes out no richer or greater; nay, he comes out harder, poorer, smaller, for his pain. But if he turns to God, the hour of suffering is the turning point of his life.—Phillips Brooks, D. D.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Efficient. Will heat a good sized room even in the coldest weather.

Economical. Burns nine hours on one gallon of oil.

Ornamental. Nickel trimmings; plain steel or enameled turquoise-blue drums.

Portable. Easily carried from room to room; weighs only eleven pounds; handle doesn't get hot.

Doesn't Smoke
Doesn't Leak
Easily Cleaned and Re-wicked
Inexpensive
Lasts for years

At Dealers Everywhere

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

(Incorporated in Kentucky)
Louisville, Ky. Atlanta, Ga. Jackson, Miss.
Birmingham, Ala. Jacksonville, Fla.

B. M. SLATON UNDERTAKER

Funeral Director. Licensed Embalmer

Answer all calls Day or Night

NEXT DOOR TO POST OFFICE.

Office Phone 124-2

Residence Phone 124-3

MADISONVILLE,

KENTUCKY

Spiritual Insulation.

Many a man, who is now thrilled with the currents of the life of this modern age freely passing through him, is in danger of moral disaster, through defective spiritual insulation. Are the wires of your ambition well wrapped around with the insulating material of prayer and faith and love?—Elon's Herald.

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man an unhappy slave. For impure blood and sluggish liver, use Burdock Blood Bitters. On the market 35 years. $1.00 a bottle.

Knitting Needle in Her Body.

Clara Warrillow, a two-year-old Longton child, who died lately, lived for nearly nine months with a knitting needle in her body. She was operated on a few days ago, and the needle was extracted, but she died.

When you want a reliable medicine for a cough or cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

As the Chinese Make Matches.

The Japanese have developed the extensive manufacture of matches in China. There are factories at Tientsin, Peking, Hangkow, Shanghai and other places. The viceroys do not allow the erection of several factories in the same town, so that each factory has a kind of local monopoly. The factory at Hangkow employs 3,600 hands and produces fifty or sixty tons, daily.

Timely Tommy.

Teacher—Now, little Tommy, give us an example of the double negative. Little Tommy—I don't know none.—New York Globe.

PNEUMONIA

left me with a frightful cough and very weak. I had spells when I could hardly breathe or speak for 10 to 20 minutes. My doctor could not help me, but I was completely cured by

DR. KING'S New Discovery

Mrs. J. E. Cox, Joliet, Ill.
50c AND $1.00 AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

He, Too, a Deceiver.

He—How is this? I come back unexpectedly from my trip and find you flirting with another man. You have deceived me. She—not any more than you. You told me you would be away eight days and here you are back again the next day. Have you not also deceived me?—Fliegende Blätter.

Pleurisy pains are located just below the short ribs. Lumbago affects the same region but toward the back. BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT in the remedy in either case. If rubbed in thoroughly it eases pain, relaxes the muscles and the patient can move about freely and comfortably. Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, Drug department.

Best Way to Get Even.

If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty give him water to drink; for thou wilt heap coals of fire upon his head, and Jehovah will reward thee.—Proverbs of Solomon, 25:21.

Pine Tree Lives Long.

The maximum length of life of the pine tree is said to be 700 years.

Coughs that keep you awake at night also disturb the sleep of the rest of the family. They can be stopped in a few minutes with

Ballard's Horehound Syrup

It is a Remedy of Great Relieving Power in All Lung and Throat Troubles.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup conveys a warming and relaxing influence to the congested lungs. Heals soreness, quiets tickling sensation in the throat, strengthens the voice, loosens phlegm and relieves all irritated conditions in the throat and lungs. Keep a bottle in the house. It is handy to have when needed and saves a world of misery to the person affected.

Put Up in Three Sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per Bottle.

Buy the $1.00 size. It contains five times as much as the 25c size, and you get with each bottle a Horehound Red Pepper Porous Plaster for the chest.

JAMES F. BALLARD, PROPRIETOR, ST. LOUIS, MO.

For Weak, Sore Eyes, use Stephens Eye Salve. It cures.

Co., Incorporated, Drug Dept., Special Agent